Wednesday 12th December 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

It's the week we've all been waiting for! I've been deliberately staying out of rehearsals for the nativity and the play so that I can get the full benefit of watching them for the first time. I wasn't disappointed yesterday as the children performed beautifully. The speakers from Acorn were loud and clear, the acting was fantastic and the singing from everyone was wonderful. Tonight, I'm going to be watching the play for the first time; I've been informed by those who have already seen it that it is fantastic. I'd like to take this opportunity to say thank you to all the staff and volunteers that have played their part in getting both performances ready. It isn't an easy thing to do, particularly at this time of year and a lot of credit should go to them.

Christmas Jumper Day

This Friday is Christmas Jumper Day. You may have already seen mine this week as I won't be here on Friday. Children are encouraged to wear a festive jumper (over their usual uniform) and the school will be taking donations of £1 which goes to Save the Children.

Christmas Lunch

Horspath's Christmas lunch will be served on Thursday 20th December. The menu is an additional attachment to this email. This means that the roast will not be available on Wednesday next week and will be replaced by Thursday's usual offerings.

Pantomime Visit

This is a final reminder for those wishing for their children to go to the pantomime on Wednesday but have not yet returned the slip and payment. It will make a huge difference to the office staff if those can be returned as soon as possible.

Diary Dates

We break up at 1:30pm on Friday 21st December. The school will reopen for children on Tuesday 8th January.

Many Thanks
Scott Lewis
